Real Estate for Sale.

COUNTRY PLACE—for SALE at WHITE PLAINS, Westchester Co., N.Y., near the depot of the Harlem and New Haven Railroads, on the site of a FINE DWELLING, together with a large acre of EXCELLENT LAND, formerly owned by Thomas G. Gates, artist deceased.

The house contains twelve rooms, and is well lighted and heated with steam power, giving it a bright and airy appearance.

The dwelling is abundantly surrounded with fruit and large shade trees.

A well of the purest water is at the kitchen door, and in the orchard, a few rods distant, there is another well. A small brook, which flows from one of the boundaries of the premises.

The out buildings consist of the barn and carriage-house over one roof, a small wood-chest, a wash house.

The house and all the buildings are in good order.

Immediately adjoining the lawn is a splendid orchard of two acres, from which over 1,000 pounds of apples are raised annually.

There are also fine fruit trees in the three orchards of this place, such as cherries, peaches, etc.

With the exception of the fine old settled and pleasant villages in this part of the country, it is abundantly supplied with schools and churches. The Harlem Railroad Company is now building an addition to their station, Terrell's Mills, and G. F. BRISTOW, MORSE & Co., 62 Broadway.
